ACTIVITIES DURING LOCKDOWN

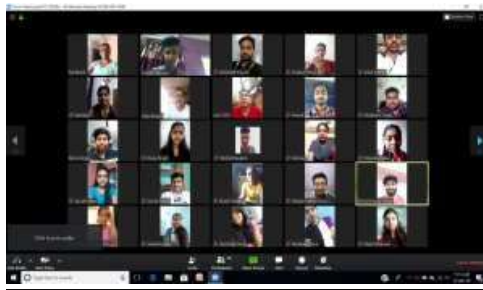

STATE – JHARKHAND

DISTRICT – EAST SINGHBHUM

ACTIVITIES:

❖ WEEKLY MEETINGS

The NSS cell of Netaji Subhas University conducted a meeting at the end of every week. All the volunteers along with the Program Coordinator Prof. Raju Bhagat and the Program Officer Prof. Sai Bharti attended the weekly meeting. The basic purpose of conducting a weekly meeting is to discuss about the working of the volunteers to help in this pandemic, i.e., COVID 19 and also to appreciate them for their dedication and creativity.

Let's come together to
#StopChildSexualAbuse

THE RAKSHIN PROJECT BY SAKSHI.

- Webinars
- This webinar was an eye-opening experience for all the students present. They were taught about 'What is Child Abuse?' and also made aware about 'What are the different legal actions that can be taken under the POSCOA, i.e., Protection Of Children from Sexual Offences Act'. Education regarding the content Child Abuse is of utmost importance these days.

Work during pandemic celebrated: Health Minister Banna Gupta interacts with NSS officials the

...even in the calamity of this time, the way he performing his duties towards the society is noteworthy."

In this webinar, the Health Minister thanked all Kumar Singh (Director of NSS, Jharkhand), Youth Affairs (Secretary), and Youth Affairs (Secretary), Ministry of Health, Government of India.

The webinar was attended by NSS officers, volunteers, programme officers from various states.

Health Minister Banna Gupta appreciated the NSS workers for their hard work during the pandemic. He said, "NSS workers are the backbone of the society during this time. They are working hard to provide relief to the people in need. I am proud of their dedication and service to the society."

- This webinar was conducted by UNICEF Jharkhand and Central University of Jharkhand for our NSS Volunteers. The students were taught about Covid-19's

- Prevention, Awareness and Role of the Student Community. They also taught them about their role as a NSS Volunteer and what should they do as a Student and as a Volunteer of NSS.
